Prof. John P. Brooks, dean of the Department of Civil Engineering, State College, has been notified by E. W. Lucas, Captain of corps of United States engineers at Memphis, Tenn., that upon his recommendation the State College has been placed upon the accredited list of schools of engineering in the United States, and that students having diplomas from the State College are entitled to promotion to junior grade of engineers after one year's active service, during which time the required ability has been shown. This ruling places the State College on equal footing with the best engineering schools in the country.

An Ohio exchange speaks of a man who always pays his local paper two years in advance. As a result he has never been sick in his life, never had corns on his toes or toothache, his potatoes never rust, the frost never kills his pears, his habes never cry at night, his wife never scolds and he succeeded in serving three terms on the School Board without being criticized.

There are rumors from the Far East that a great battle is in progress at Port Arthur, but they are not verified and the reports are lacking in details. A Tokyo dispatch says the Japanese have occupied the first line of the fortifications outside of Port Arthur after a feeble resistance, and another correspondent of another paper says the Japanese have occupied Kwan Tung heights, on which they employed heavy artillery dominating Port Arthur. There are rumors, also unverified, of severe fighting on the Liao Tung peninsula.

YATESVILLE.

The digging of May apple root is one of the leading industries among some of our people. Say, why not some of the oil machinery come our way. It is said that right here in our locality there is a spot of ground that is one of the finest looking places for oil that is to be found anywhere in this section, and it is also a good site for operating an oil well. It is on the land of Frank Cooksey, near Fallsburg. A prospector passing through said that on said spot of ground, oil could be obtained without a doubt and that at a very slight depth. Mr. Cooksey says there is also some indications of gas at the same place as he can see lights rising from the surface any damp night. The spot of ground referred to is the smallswag in the bottom just below Mr. Cooksey's home.

We are having a fine growing season, the corn and weeds coming up together and farmers are making the best fight they possibly can in favor of the former and vs. the latter.

We have two oil wells going down, one at Jesse Young's and the other at John Cooper's.

The worst thing now on the farmers is we have had a week of wet weather, and they are now in the weeds. Grass and oats are fine the best for several years. Corn looks well, but very weedy. Pastures are good.

It's really the Bargain Season of the year.

Most everything is reduced regardless of cost. The one purpose is to clean out stock for our Fall Goods—and a clean-out it must be. Our prices usually have the desired effect. We put them so low that you can't help but consider them.

If we quoted all the prices here it would fill the entire page, so we only tell you to come and judge our method of clearing stock.

The saving you can make by buying here will more than pay your fare.

CHARLEY.

First we want to state the Decoration of the M. P. S. here on the 28th ult. was a grand success and was joined with a concourse of friends and neighbors which made a very large crowd. They marched to several graves and strewed many flowers and had eloquent speeches, but the grandest event of the day was that of decorating the living, old uncle Isaac Pack, Sr., at his home place by his request. He is one of the first who settled on this creek many years ago when there was but two families besides his, when this creek was a solid wilderness, no roads, no mails, no schools, no stores, no grist mills. He was the one who had the first boundary line run for a school district on this creek, and to have the road surveyed from mouth of George's creek to Mt. Sweetnam, on Brushy creek. His age is 91 years, and he is one among the best citizens of Lawrence county and should be remembered by the rising generation.

L. W. Thompson and Oakley Vaughan are here from Innesville hauling lumber from Brushy.

David Spencer is erecting a dwelling house on Wallace Vanhook's lot.

Roscoe Burton is building a house for Green Hays.

The Paintsville Herald says—Tracklaying on the railroad extension has been suspended this week on account of heavy rains. The track has been laid to Jim Linda Castle property, above the mouth of Muddy Branch, and will reach the Paint creek bridge by Saturday.

The construction train is following up the work, and the citizens of Paintsville are now able to hear the whistle of the locomotive.

The iron work on the Paint creek bridge will be placed in position as soon as cars can reach the bridge. It will require only a few days to put up the bridge, and tracklaying will then continue on up the river.

Many flying reports have gained circulation concerning the location of the Paintsville depot. Some of our people are strongly inclined to the belief that the depot will be located on the lower side of Paint creek, but The Herald is in a position to say for a fact that the depot will be located in Bust Stafford bottom, and those contemplating different had as well be resigned to their fate.
